COMMANDER, 67th Expeditionary Signal Battalion

Welcome to the 67th Expeditionary Signal Battalion, better known as the Lightning Battalion. Our motto is "Lightning Force", and I'm sure you will find this to be an extremely challenging yet rewarding assignment. As one of two expeditionary signal battalions assigned to 35th Signal Brigade located at Fort Gordon, GA, with leadership guidance from the XVIII Airborne Corps, we remain trained and ready to answer the Nation's call. The mission of the 67th ESB is, on order, to deploy worldwide to engineer, install, operate, maintain and defend the LandWarNet in support of Army units, combatant commanders, joint operational, intergovernmental, interagency and multinational (JIIM) forces for united land operations (ULO).

We are located at Fort Gordon just a few miles southwest of the city of Augusta. We are 138 miles from the charm of Charleston, South Carolina and approximately 150 miles east of Atlanta on Interstate 20. I think you will find Augusta to be a great place to live. The weather is mild, the golf is great, and Southern hospitality is alive and well.

Your sponsor will be appointed at a later date to answer any questions you might have about the unit or any other issues. For additional information about the unit, please take a look at our official home page: <http://www.signal.army.mil/67sig> and/or facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/pages/HHC-67th-ESB-FRG/101992776576506>. I look forward to your arrival in the best Signal battalion in the United States Army!

LIGHTNING FORCE!

Sincerely,
